BYLAWS OF THE FACULTY ASSEMBLY

Commented [ME8]: This does not occur regularly. Should this remain the same and be enforced, OR Suggestion A: “The chair of each standing committee will communicate regularly with at least one UCCS representative of the corresponding system-wide committee.”

OR
Suggestion B: Leave original wording in and add “if no member of the campus committee is available to serve on the system committee, then the chair of each standing committee will communicate regularly with at least one UCCS representative of the corresponding system-wide committee.”

Commented [ME9]: May need to add item 4…Chair of the BAC also serves as an ex officio voting member of the UBAC.

UBAC bylaws allow for this person as a voting member of the committee.

Commented [ME10]: Is this really the practice or is there a faculty chair who fills this role?

6. Nominations shall be officially closed two weeks prior to the start of the election.

Commented [ME11]: RATIONALE: This committee, especially with the new online election process, really serves more as a nominating committee than an elections committee. It is easy for the results to be verified by the FEC rather than have to convene the elections committee to do so, since the FEC meets shortly after the election closes.

Commented [ME12]: RATIONALE: FA reps turn over annually, so having 3 year terms are not viable, if we select the Nominating committee from the reps.

Commented [ME13]: RATIONALE: To be consistent with other changes for start date.

Commented [ME14]: RATIONALE: With the online election format it is easier for one person to prepare the ballot.

Commented [ME15]: RATIONALE: A nominating committee would not do this task.

Commented [ME16]: RATIONALE: In the process of e-voting, this should be part of the process to prevent duplication of ballots.

Commented [ME17]: RATIONALE: An update in light of the addition of e-voting

Commented [ME18]: RATIONALE: Using Qualtrics to administer an electronic election allows for hold-over of the records. It will be easier to hold this information until the next election occurs. (technically it is 11 months until the start of the next year’s election...so should we say 11 months?)

Commented [ME19]: RATIONALE: See comment for changing to Nominating Committee
7. No name may appear on the ballot without the candidate’s permission.

8. The election period shall begin on the Monday prior to Spring break at 8:00 a.m. and extend until 5:00 p.m. Friday of that week.

9. Members of the election committee shall meet to count ballots and verify results.
