The Faculty Relations Manager serves as a neutral, independent, informal, and private conflict management resource for UCCS faculty members.

Areas of Responsibility

- Provide informal assistance to any faculty member who is experiencing unresolved problems with others in the university community or those with concerns about university-related academic or administrative issues
- Coach faculty members in strategies for managing their own conflicts
- Foster communication as appropriate between individuals involved in a conflict
- Mediate disputes informally
- Conduct informal fact-finding when appropriate to better understand an issue
- Collaborate with the Offices of Institutional Equity and Human Resources
- Collaborate with the Provost, other Vice Chancellors, and college deans to resolve issues
- Communicate with the Chancellor about trends in issues seen by the Faculty Relations Manager
- Promote understanding on the campus of the role and responsibilities of the Faculty Relations position

The Faculty Relations Manager is a .15 position and is a 9-month pilot from April through December 2017.
