As such, campers will stay in on-campus dorms, eat all meals on campus, and have the advantage of playing night games.

Regardless of the ability, during the week each player will have opportunities to improve, sharpen and strengthen their skill level which will be showcased in camp games. Campers will have the advantage of playing alongside aspiring, incoming recruits and current players.

Goalkeepers will have the advantage of receiving specialized goalkeeping training during the day. At night, goalkeepers will be placed on teams for game play.
