

5th Annual Culturally Responsive Teaching, Leadership, & Counseling Symposium (CRTLC™)

*“Celebrating the Magic of all Children.”
Saturday, January 23, 2010*

The College of Education at UCCS, led by Dean La Vonne I. Neal, would like to invite you to a P-20 symposium. Participants will interact with national experts in the areas of culturally responsive teaching, leadership & counseling. Speakers will share instructional strategies and curricula specifically designed to meet the needs of all students, particularly students from diverse cultural backgrounds, students receiving special education services, and students of color.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Geneva Gay

Dr. Geneva Gay, the author of the book “Culturally Responsive Teaching,” is highly respected for her research and teaching of curriculum theory, African-American culture, and multicultural education. In 1994, she received the Ann Baker Award, in honor of her distinctive leadership, scholarship, and service to women. She has contributed to numerous journals and books in these fields.

Call for Presenters

If you are interested in being a presenter for a breakout session, please visit the CRTLC Website and submit your proposal electronically!

Proposals are due: December 1, 2009

Sponsorships

We have several different options for sponsoring the symposium. If you are interested, please contact Carla Rupprecht at 719-255-4134 or crupprec@uccs.edu

Call for Nominations for Awards

Every year at the symposium we present awards to educators who are Culturally Responsive. If you are interested in nominating an educator please contact Carla Rupprecht 719-255-4134 or you may fill out the nomination form on our website and submit to Ms. Rupprecht.

Nominations are due: December 1, 2009

Call to RSVP Today!
Space is limited

Free to Attend

Preregistration is required for attendance!

Credit available $90.00 1 credit hour thru UCCS
Registration & attendance are required for credit

Call: Carla Rupprecht (719)255-4134
crupprec@uccs.edu

Symposium Link - <http://www.uccs.edu/~coe/CRTLC>