ABOUT THE CENTER

CSGI....the foundations for understanding and analyzing diverse perspectives of the appropriate role of government, its limitations and restrictions....

The Center for the Study of Government and the Individual resides at the University of Colorado in Colorado Springs. The general public and any of the faculty and students of the schools and colleges at UCCS interested in research and teaching activities related to government and the individual may participate in its activities. Dr. James A. Null is the Executive Director and is administratively responsible for the oversight of the Center.

The purpose of the Center for the Study of Government and the Individual is to provide a vehicle for the candid, open, diverse and multi-faceted exploration of all the issues in this topic area in all of their dimensions. Its purpose is to stimulate the confrontation of all orthodoxies in regard to the role of government in American social and economic systems.
