The College of Business will be offering an academic learning lab to students interested in learning about financial investments. This is a hands-on class where students will be given access to an account of real money to manage and invest. This class meets weekly during the fall and spring semesters for 3 credit hours. Application is open to all UCCS students interested in this topic, but space is limited. Deadline for applications is August 19. Applications received after that date will be considered on a space available basis. All interested students should attend the first class meeting.
