

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN THE SOCIOLOGY OF DIVERSITY

The Graduate Faculty of the Sociology Department has a strong emphasis in diversity and inequality issues, highlighting race and ethnicity, gender, sexuality, and class. For sociology graduate students wishing to concentrate in these areas, we offer a graduate certificate of specialization. Completion of the certificate provides evidence of specialized study, which can be beneficial for enhancing future career options and interests.

Dr. Heather Albanesi is the coordinator of the Graduate Certificate in Diversity.

General Requirements

- Minimum requirement for completion: four courses, for a total of twelve credits.
- A minimum grade of 3.3 is required for each course applied toward the certificate.
- All courses must be at 500 level or above in Sociology; independent studies may not be used to earn this certificate.

All courses must be offered through the Sociology department and qualify upon approval of the Certificate Coordinator.
