

The White Privilege Conference is coming to Colorado! April 18-21, 2007

How can you support the White Privilege Conference?

1. Participate in the conference! Attend and encourage others to attend!
2. Volunteer- we need lots of volunteers to help at the conference.
3. Make an in-kind donation: consider donating pens, notebooks, folders, bottles of water or other items for conference participants and/or presenters.
4. Donate: donations of any amount are tremendously appreciated. A donation of $5.00 will provide lunch for an attendee; a donation of $50 will fund a student scholarship for the conference.
5. Sponsorship: The WPC seeks sponsors to help support keynotes and special events:

Sponsor an event:

We seeks sponsors for the following special events (if you are interested, contact us to discuss details of costs):

Meet the Speakers: an hour long event featuring appetizers. At this event, participants can meet keynote speakers and presenters, have books signed, etc. Sponsorship will be recognized in the program, sponsor's banner can be displayed at the event, and acknowledged at the event.

Youth Celebration: this event highlights the youth participants of the Youth institute, and sponsorship will cover costs of refreshments so that this event can be offered free. Sponsorship will be recognized in the program, sponsor's banner can be displayed at the event, and acknowledged at the event.

Shabbat Dinner: the costs of this Friday evening dinner and panel discussion are not covered by the conference registration. Sponsorship will allow us to offer attendance at this event for free, or at a discounted rate. Sponsorship will be recognized in the program, sponsor's banner can be displayed at the event, and acknowledged at the event.
