ANB Bank Dennis Nathan Scholarship
Award: $2,500
The ANB Bank Dennis Nathan Scholarship is a scholarship to honor the twenty-one year legacy of president and chief executive officer of ANB bank, Dennis Nathan. This scholarship will be awarded to an undergraduate business student who displays strong academic achievement and financial need. Students need to have financial need, be a junior or senior in the College of Business undergraduate program, maintain a 3.0 GPA and submit a resume and an essay answering "How should banks market to the younger generations (i.e. Millennials, Gen Y)?"

Bob Knapp Scholarship
Award: Four awards at $700 each
The Bob Knapp Scholarship is offered to full-time undergraduate students in the College of Business and Administration with a minimum 3.5 GPA and be a sophomore level or higher. Financial need will be taken into consideration. Many donors have come together to establish this scholarship in honor of Bob Knapp.

College of Business Scholarship
Award: Four awards at $1500 each
Offered to full-time undergraduate students in the College of Business and Administration with a minimum 3.5 GPA and be a sophomore level or higher. Financial need will be taken into consideration. This scholarship is supported by many donors, many of whom are alumni.

Harry A. and Carol Black Salzman
Award: $2000
The Harry A. and Carol Black Salzman College of Business Scholarship is a merit based scholarship provided to students enrolled in a UCCS College of Business degree program. Strong applicants will be civic-minded and have a goal of contributing to the success of Colorado Springs. The Salzman family encourages talented young professionals to reside in the community following graduation for a period of at least three years. Students must have a 2.5 cumulative GPA and be a sophomore level or higher. Special preference will be given to students who have completed or secured an internship with a company in the Pikes Peak Region.

Joseph and Dorothy Petta Scholarship
Award: $750
The Joseph and Dorothy Petta Scholarship is for business students enrolled in 3 credit hours, who are residents of Colorado, and who have a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Financial need will be considered. This endowment was established by Joseph and Dorothy M. Petta as a legacy to the University by two of its co-founders. Both Joseph and Dorothy attended the University of Colorado Boulder. In 1959, Joseph graduated with both a Baccalaureate and a Master’s degree in Business. Joseph also taught courses in Business Administration at the Colorado Springs campus while it was still an extension of the University. Dorothy went on to graduate from the University of Southern Colorado with a Bachelor of Science degree in Behavioral Science. By virtue of their gift, Joseph and Dorothy Petta wish to provide scholarship assistance to students who, in order to accomplish their academic goals, would otherwise be forced to incur substantial debt through the acquisition of student loans; the Donors’ intentions are to help curtail this burden of debt.

Marvin Strait Scholarship
Award: $2,000
The Marvin Strait Scholarship is awarded to senior level undergraduate students who are majoring in accounting. The student must have a 3.5 cumulative GPA and a 3.6 cumulative GPA in all accounting courses. A community of donors, led by Dr. Paul Miller, came together to honor Marvin Strait for his contributions to the accounting profession.

Michael Zwislerin Scholarship
Award: $750
The Michael Zwislerin Scholarship is offered to senior level undergraduate students in the College of Business who are pursuing an emphasis in finance. Students must have a minimum of a 3.25 cumulative GPA. Financial need not considered. This scholarship fund was established in memory of Michael Zwislerin, the son of Dr. Tom Zwislerin and Chris Zwislerin.

Morris Slobodow Scholarship
Award: $2,000
The Morris Slobodow Scholarship is awarded to business students with priority consideration given to students who meet one or more of the following criteria: first generation immigrant, demonstrated financial need, or employed part-time. The scholarship was established in 1997 by a gift from Requisite, Inc. of Boulder, CO, to show its appreciation for business assistance provided to them by Professor Alan M. Morris, one of Morris’ grandchildren. The goal of the scholarship is to assist undergraduate students who share Morris Slobodow’s beliefs in independent thinking, hard work, and education.

Sky Sox Sport Management Scholarship
Award: $2,500
The Sky Sox Sport Management Scholarship is a scholarship with the Sky Sox Baseball Club to support the College of Business’ Sport Management Program and its students. Students must have a minimum of a 3.0 cumulative GPA and be a sophomore, junior or senior in the Sport Management Program and need to submit a resume and specialized essay: “In Baseball, the official rulebook states there are 8 ways to get to first base. As you consider your goals and aspirations, how will this scholarship help you to get to first base and eventually home plate?”

William D. Eskew Scholarship
Award: Two awards at $1,000 each
The William D. Eskew Scholarship is offered to junior or senior level undergraduate students in the College of Business who are pursuing a degree in accounting. Students must have a minimum of a 2.5 cumulative GPA and demonstrated financial need. The Public Accountants Society of Colorado supports this scholarship through their fundraising efforts.
