COUN 4950

* COE Counseling Undergraduate Course *

This introductory counseling course provides an introductory overview of the key issues that students encounter in field work. Topics include theoretical content areas such as cultural competence and understanding the supervision relationship, as well as personal challenges such as taking care of oneself as a practicum student and as a professional. Prer., Junior or Senior standing.

Instructed by Dr. Mari McGuinness