FAQ

What is WICHE?
Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, established over 55 years ago to promote higher education resources among Western states.

What are WICHE states?

How do I apply for the WRGP resident tuition rate?
Once you have submitted your application online, please contact us at enonline@uccs.edu or call 719-255-3246 and identify yourself as a WRGP applicant.

If I am already a MESO program student, can I still apply for WRGP participation?
No, only new students applying to begin the program in the Fall 13 semester or later are eligible.

Is this need based?
No, financial need does not need to be demonstrated.

Is this a limited opportunity?
We give a limited number of WRGP reduced tuition “seats” each year, so apply early.

Are there special qualifications that must be met for acceptance?
Residency must be determined to be within one of the states listed above, other than Colorado. Residency will be determined by admission based on the Tuition Classification Form submitted upon application. Program admission will be based on the same educational requirements for all applicants, both WRGP and non-WRG.

How do I know if I am a Colorado resident and don’t need to apply for WRGP participation?
Residency requirements can be found on the Admissions & Records webpage http://www.uccs.edu/admrec/tuition.html. Questions regarding Colorado residency should be addressed to the Tuition Classification Evaluator in Admissions & Records at 719-255-3381.
