UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO, COLORADO SPRINGS
Pre-Law Minor

Students seeking a pre-law minor as a preparation for law school or for general interest must complete a minimum of 18 credit hours, 12 of which must be upper-division courses, and all of which must be completed in at least two of the seven departments that participate in the program (Communications, Economics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, and Women and Ethnic Studies). Special Topic courses offered in the departments that are not listed here and that might qualify require the consent of the Director of the Pre-law Minor, Raphael Sassower (Philosophy). LSAT preparation courses are routinely offered through the college’s Extended Studies program.
