Online Completion in Sociology

The Bachelor's Degree Program in Sociology offers the option of online completion. If students have completed 60 credits at UCCS, or transfer in with an AA, they will be able to complete their Bachelor of Arts at UCCS in sociology completely online. Alternatively, students who reside in the Colorado Springs area also have the option to take a combination of online and evening/weekend courses to complete the degree. All sociology required classes are offered in the online format at least once during the calendar year, most are offered every semester, including summer. A range of elective classes are also available online each semester. All of the courses below are offered online.
