Music Scholarships and employment opportunities

1. Honors Ensemble Scholarship
   Amount: $500-$1000/semester

   The Honors Ensembles are open to all instrumentalists and vocalists and are comprised of small chamber and jazz ensembles, soloists, as well as creative music groups. Auditions are held at the beginning of each semester and ensembles are built on high levels of musicianship and ensemble needs. Award recipients will be given a scholarship in amounts from $500 - $1000 for the semester in the form of tuition reimbursements. Honors Ensembles are coached by faculty and will be required to perform at several events on campus each semester. Priority is given to Music majors and minors and is open to all instrumentalists and vocalists.

2. Mountain Lion Pep Band Scholarship
   Amount: $500/semester
   Open to: woodwinds, brass, rhythm section (piano, guitar, bass, drums)

   The Mountain Lion Pep Band performs during basketball season, and also gives a concert at the end of each semester.

3. Chamber Orchestra of the Springs (COS)
   Amount: $200-$640/semester
   Open to: available open seats

   Students receive one ensemble credit and a scholarship for membership in this semi-professional orchestra and work directly with Thomas Wilson, Director of the COS. Rehearsals and performances are off-campus.

4. Work Study positions

   Several work study positions are available that serve as professional development opportunities, including audio production, marketing / advertising, graphic design, inventory and scheduling, and assisting the music director and program coordinator in a range of duties. Creativity and problem solving are key aspects of these positions.
