

BYLAWS
Teaching with Technology Committee
University of Colorado – Colorado Springs
(Adopted by the Faculty Assembly, 2/13/15)

Article I – Name

The name of this committee shall be Teaching with Technology (TWT).

Article II – Purpose

The purpose of this committee shall be to represent the faculty as a regular standing committee at Faculty Representative Assembly meetings in regard to issues surrounding teaching with technology, including, but not limited to, enhanced, hybrid, and fully online courses and degree programs, and the use of technology in the traditional classroom. The committee shall address TWT concerns on campus, and engage in problem solving, implementation, and development of procedures for TWT.

Article III – Membership

The committee shall consist of six to eight faculty members, attempting to have at least one member from each college or school.

1. The term of membership shall be for three years, with staggered, annual expiring terms.
2. Vacancies shall be filled by the college or school, subject to approval of the TWT committee and the Faculty Representative Assembly president.
3. Members have a responsibility to attend regularly and participate. After three unexcused absences, the chair may request replacement of the committee member.
4. At least one member shall serve as the campus representative to any existing corresponding system-wide committee.
5. The committee may, as needed, invite members of the campus administration to participate in an advisory capacity as non-voting members.

Article IV – Officers

The committee members shall elect a chair or co-chairs who shall assume office on the first of July. The chair(s) has the following responsibilities:

1. Ensure that the committee meets regularly.
2. Notify committee members of agenda and meeting times.
3. Submit written committee reports to the Faculty Representative Assembly Executive Committee as directed by that committee.
4. Inform the Faculty Representative Assembly president of any vacancies that should be filled.

Article V – Meetings

Meetings shall be held once a month during the academic year or as needed.

1. All committee meetings shall be conducted according to the Rules for Small Committees as specified in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Article VI – Source of Power

Constitution and Bylaws of UCCS Faculty Representative Assembly

Article VII – Amendments

These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting by a quorum vote of the members present and entitled to vote, provided the proposed change has been submitted to the members in writing at the previous meeting and all absent members notified that a vote will be taken at the next regular meeting.
