I like UCCS because of its inclusive culture - you get to meet people from a range of different backgrounds who help you develop a broader perspective. The professors are genuine, and are very willing to lend a hand if you need it. Also, there are many opportunities for you to be involved on campus, from concerts to carnivals. UCCS provides you with an all-rounded college experience unlike any other.

As an international student at UCCS, I've been given many great opportunities to get involved in different projects and events. In my first year, I was able to participate in a nationwide ethical competition as a representative for the UCCS team! Also, I get to work at the Global Engagement Office as a student employee to help other international students like me! The faculty, staff and students here are very friendly and helpful. It's definitely an enjoyable experience studying at UCCS.

UCCS has unique location facing the famous mountain Pikes Peak, which is beautifully covered by snow most of the year. Additionally, the university has state of art, modern building facilities and excellent professors. All these factors make UCCS the best educational institute for all local and international students. Student activity programs which focus on social community aspects provide an opportunity for students to be connected on and off campus.

UCCS has excellent facilities, friendly classmates and professors who care about their students. Moreover, students can enjoy the beautiful Mountain View, workout and swim for free, take part in a variety of activities and learn a lot of useful knowledge. UCCS also provides assistance and opportunities for international as well as domestic students to get internships or jobs. In UCCS, I have a wonderful study experience.
