

All-Comer Policy

At the University of Colorado Colorado Springs (UCCS), we are committed to ensuring that all members of our community have access to campus events, programs, and activities. In alignment with university and system policies and our institutional commitment to a culture of care, one of the two all-comer statements must be clearly displayed on websites and printed materials promoting clubs, organizations, events, and programs.

UCCS All-Comer Language

For general events, activities, and programs, please use the following statement:

Events, programs, and services are open to all UCCS community members, regardless of protected class status, including race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, etc. All are encouraged to actively participate and live our inclusive values.

Student Organization All-Comer Language

Student organizations are asked to use the following statement:

At UCCS, we are committed to fostering an inclusive and welcoming environment for all students. All student organization events and meetings must be open to all UCCS students, ensuring equitable access to involvement opportunities on campus. Student organizations are expected to uphold this commitment to inclusivity in their programming and membership activities.
