

TRANSFORM

Play a vital role in transforming our world.

The UCCS School of Public Affairs presents

Community Conversations

a series of events highlighting the ways in which members of our community play an integral part in transforming lives

NONPROFITS AT HOME AND ABROAD: BUILDING COMMUNITIES AND UNDERSTANDING CULTURES

Tuesday, February 10 at 7:00 pm

The Lodge on the UCCS Campus

This is a presentation by Dr. Schuyler Foerster, Brent Scowcroft Professor of National Security Studies at the USAFA Department of Political Science and Eisenhower Center for Space and Defense Studies, and Ms. Janet Foerster, MEd, founder and President of InnerCHANGE WORKS (ICW), a nonprofit organization that focuses on the creation and implementation of community development and intercultural programs in the US, Nicaragua, and other countries around the world.

Please join the UCCS School of Public Affairs for this rare opportunity to hear the Foersters, both highly dedicated to serving others, present together. This event is free and open to the public.

More information:
719.255.3406 or psawyer@uccs.edu

*“Working together
across cultures
works for good.”*

- ICW Motto

School of Public Affairs

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO COLORADO SPRINGS